Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 1, 2024, Pineapple Energy, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter (the “Minimum Bid Price Deficiency Letter”) from the Listing Qualifications Department (the “Staff”) of The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) notifying the Company that, for the 30 consecutive business day period from August 16 through September 30, 2024, the Company’s common stock had not maintained a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 per share (the “Minimum Bid Price Requirement”) required for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2). The Nasdaq letter does not result in the immediate delisting of the Company’s common stock from The Nasdaq Capital Market.

Normally, a company would be afforded a 180-calendar day period (“Cure Period”) to demonstrate compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. However, pursuant to the previously disclosed Nasdaq hearing panel decision, dated July 18, 2024, the Company was subject to a mandatory panel monitor (“Panel”) under Nasdaq’s listing Rule 5815(d)(4)(B) for a period of one year. Accordingly, due to the most recent minimum bid price deficiency, as is customary in similar situations, the Staff notified the Company that it will not be afforded a Cure Period. Instead, the Company is offered an opportunity to appeal any deficiency related to a delisting determination to Nasdaq by or before October 8, 2024. Accordingly, unless the Company timely requests a hearing before a Hearings Panel, the Company’s securities would be subject to suspension/delisting.

The Company intends to timely request a hearing before the Hearing Panel. The hearing request will automatically stay any suspension or delisting action pending the hearing and the expiration of any additional extension period if granted by the Panel following the hearing. There can be no assurance that the Panel will grant the Company an additional extension period or that the Company will ultimately regain compliance with all applicable requirements for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market.

In the event that the Company regains compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement prior to any scheduled hearing date, then a hearing may not be necessary, as the Company may be mooted out of the hearings process. Additionally, to this end, the stockholders of the Company had approved a share consolidation in July 2024 that can be utilized within the discretion of the board of directors of the Company and, if and when effectuated, such action may resolve the above noted Nasdaq listing compliance deficiency prior to such hearing date.

Forward-Looking Statements

For all these reasons, actual results and developments could be materially different from those expressed in or implied by our forward-looking statements.
