State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's wholly owned subsidiary, JDL Technologies, Inc. (JDL), continues to be subject to an investigation by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) regarding whether JDL violated the federal False Claims Act in connection with funding requests under the federal government's E-Rate program for work JDL performed for the U.S. Virgin Islands Department of Education (VIDOE). The Company is cooperating with the DOJ investigation, while simultaneously conducting its own internal investigation, with oversight by the Company's Audit Committee, regarding the implications of the DOJ investigation for the Company's previously issued financial statements and its future financial reporting. In addition to the DOJ investigation and related internal investigation, management is continuing its assessment of whether receivables totaling approximately $4.0 million that are related to work performed for VIDOE (the VIDOE receivables) are collectible, and is also assessing its revenue recognition standards for work performed under the E-Rate program. The DOJ investigation, the Company's related internal investigation and management's assessment of the VIDOE receivables and its E-Rate revenue recognition standards are ongoing and could lead to the discovery of additional information that could result in the restatement of previously issued financial statements or material charges in future periods. As a result of issues and uncertainties related to the DOJ investigation, the related internal investigation and management's assessment of the VIDOE receivables and its E-Rate revenue recognition standards, the Company continues to be unable to complete and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006 and currently is unable to complete and file its SEC Form 10Q report for the quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2006 without unreasonable effort and expense.
